

DECEMBER COURT POSTPONED THAT WAR CHEST DRIVE MAY BE CARRIED ON UNHAMPERED

All Jurors But For Grand Inquest Are Relieved of Service.

CONSTABLES WILL REPORT

Remainder of Work of the Session Will Go Over Until March: Court Officials and Attorneys Will Be Busy With the Campaign for Finances.

The December term of criminal court in Fayette county will give way to the War Chest campaign. That nothing would detract the people of Fayette county from the War Chest drive to be conducted from December 2 to 16 to raise $500,000, with which to finance the relief and welfare organizations during the period of demobilization, Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen Tuesday afternoon, with the approval of Judge E. H. Reppert, postponed the entire session of December criminal court scheduled to commence December 2. The court next Monday morning will receive the returns of the constables and the grand jury will be in session to pass upon bills of indictment. No trial of cases will be held and all jurors and witnesses are excused except those summoned before the grand jury.

The motion to postpone the term of criminal court was made by Attorney D. W. McDonald, county campaign manager for the War Chest, and was favored also by Attorney W. Russell Carr, director of publicity. Mr. McDonald informed the court that the holding of criminal court simultaneously with the campaign of the War Chest drive would greatly impair the efficiency of the campaign organization which had been carefully perfected. The session would require the attendance at court, he said, of some of the most active men in all communities. It could draw upon the War Chest organization, he continued, for members of the court, attorneys, jurors, litigants and witnesses. At this time he said if the organization so carefully perfected in all sections of the county was to be disrupted by the withdrawal of so many of its leaders and workers, the War Chest campaign would necessarily be started with an additional handicap, the time being too short to fill the gaps in the organization with new leaders and workers.

He commented upon the vital importance of the War Chest campaign and then pointed out that the continuance of the session would work no hardship upon any one. He stated that he had discussed the postponement with a number of the members of the bar engaged in criminal work and had been given their approval. He pointed out that litigants would not suffer for the reason that most of those scheduled for trial had furnished bond for appearance. Such a continuance, however, he continued, would greatly facilitate and increase the efficiency of the War Chest campaign.

Mr. Carr favored the motion from the viewpoint of publicity in the War Chest campaign. He told the court that with the influenza situation the duties of the publicity committee of the War Chest were increased many fold and that the campaign managers were dependent almost entirely upon the newspapers of the county to "put the War Chest across." With such a situation, he declared, there should be nothing of interest of the people from the War Chest. A session of criminal court would do just that, he continued. The activities of the criminal session, he said, attracted interest in all sections of the county. It would be impossible to hold the undivided attention of the people generally for two weeks with the War Chest campaign, he concluded. If a percentage of citizens in all sections divided their activities with the proceedings of the criminal court.

HAD FUN WITH HEINIES

Private Carl Stehle Writes of Chase Germans Were Given.

"I am well and hope all are the same," says Private Carl Stehle, 47th Machine Gun Company, writing to his mother, Mrs. John Stehle of Gibson avenue. "Well, mother, the reason that I was so long writing was because we were busy on the front lines for a month. We surely had some fun with the Heinies and you can bet that they know that we were there. We chased them about 10 miles in one day. We are back now for a rest. We will have it quiet for some time. "Mother, it looks as if Christmas will come and I will not be home but I wish you a merry time and hope to be home for the next one. Is John working for Abe Daniel's yet? Tell him I said hello and Merry Christmas."

Henry Cole Wounded.
Henry Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole of Fayette street was wounded in action and is in base hospital No. 26, according to a letter received yesterday by his mother. Cole writes that he is not seriously wounded, but does not know when he will be discharged from the hospital. He is attached to the 35th Ammunition Train, Company G.

JUDGE VAN SWEARINGEN ORDERS COURT CONTINUED

In ordering postponement of December criminal court in favor of the War Chest Drive Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen said:

"Knowing that this motion to postpone the December term of criminal court was likely to be made Judge Reppert and I have given consideration to the matter and are each of the opinion that the most important work in Fayette county just now is that of putting the Fayette County War Chest drive over the top. That being true this motion will be granted. The entire December list of criminal jury trials will be postponed until the March term of criminal court. The returns of the constables will be taken next Monday and the grand jury will proceed with its work but otherwise than to that extent all the court work of the term will go over until March. None of the jurors summoned for the December term, except the grand jurors, need come and no witnesses need attend except those summoned to appear before the grand jury."

CHARLES A. M'KEVITT VISITS MONTE CARLO, LOOKS INTO CASINO

Interesting Trip During Furlough Is Described by Connellsville Member of the 304th Supply Company.

In a letter to Joseph Cuneo of this city Charles A. McKevitt of the 304th Supply Company tells of an interesting trip during a furlough to places in southern France and Italy. Included was a visit to Monte Carlo. The letter was written October 20. It says: "I just got back from my furlough a week ago yesterday and really the fun and time we had and all we saw were beyond imagination. I saw Frank Cuneo and Pat Lohan. I swore I wouldn't come home until I had seen them. The funny part of it was when we stepped off the train at St. Pierre des Cores, who was right there but Frank. He grabbed my mitt and said 'Put it there.' I was dumfounded because I didn't see possible. "We stayed with them a day and nearly two nights. We had some trip. We traveled 1,100 miles each way and were gone two weeks. I was in Paris twice, Marseilles, Lyons, Nice, Monte Carlo and over in Italy; also where Frank and Pat are stationed. I hated to come home because the weather was so warm—just the same as in Florida, and all we could see growing was tropical fruits. We spent two days in Monte Carlo and Monaco, and took in all the places of interest including the Casino, the largest gambling den in the world; also a big museum there that is worth a trip to France in itself. I climbed a big mountain overlooking the Mediterranean. It took me three hours to find my way back down. I wish I had time to tell you all about it but I will do that when we get home."

EXPERIENCE IS GREAT

Wouldn't Take $5,000 for His, John Smith Writes Sister.

A letter from John H. Smith, Company A, 104th Ammunition Train, to Mrs. J. R. Dunston, his sister, of this city, dated November 6, says: "We are back from the front for a short rest. We certainly were in for a while. Was under shell fire four or five times. We have been very lucky. Our division has made a mark for itself. "What do you think I saw today? Two real live American girls. They told me they were from Pittsburgh and then I was happier still. I talked to them for a long while and I certainly hated to leave them. It had been so long since I had talked to an American girl that I hardly felt right. I am all out of practice. I will have to study up a little. "I had something today that seemed very strange to me. I lost 14 pounds in getting it. It was a good bath. It is certainly a great experience over here. I would not take $5,000 for my experience. There have been quite a few times that I was downhearted but I always came out and am satisfied. Everything is going fine."

NOT OPEN TOMORROW.

Christmas Packages Will Be Inspected Friday and Saturday. However, The Red Cross rooms for the inspection of Christmas parcels for shipment overseas will not be open tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, however, they will be open until 9:30 in the evening.

Saturday is the last day for the mailing of parcels.

LIEUT. REID MAKING FLIGHT FROM NEW YORK TO THIS CITY

Daring Young Aviator Expected to Arrive Early This Afternoon.

PLANS NOT KNOWN HERE

First News of Contemplated Exploit Is Contained in Telegram Received by His Mother: Expected to Make Start From New York During Morning.

At the hour the last edition of the Courier was closed Lieutenant Reid had not appeared, nor had any word following the telegram of yesterday been received. Flying in an army airplane, Lieutenant Reid of this city, is expected to arrive here some time this afternoon from Long Island, New York, where he has been in training at a flying field. In a telegram to his mother he said he would leave New York this morning, flying to Connellsville.

It is thought that he may be coming to Pittsburgh to fly there tomorrow at the opening of the world war exposition. He does not mention any reason for his flight in the telegram received by his mother, Mrs. J. M. Reid. Just where Lieutenant Reid will land is not exactly known. He may either come down on the Morrell hill just beyond Greenwood, the Hogg addition hill, or beyond the eastern edge of the city limits.

At one other time Lieutenant Reid had expected to fly to Connellsville in his machine but the plans did not mature. His mother believes he will be here for a certainty today, some time after noon.

It was reported this morning that Lieutenant Reid would be accompanied by eight other fliers, all bound for Pittsburgh. There is no ground for this rumor, as the telegram received by Mrs. Reid does not mention any additional machines.

Connellsville has never witnessed the flight of an army airplane and the coming of Lieutenant Reid has aroused much interest. The news of his coming spread rapidly and he will likely receive a big ovation on his arrival here.

STEPHEN TODD WOUNDED

Boches Get Trotter Soldier in the Arm Neck and Leg.

Andrew Todd, a trustee of St. Emory's Hungarian Roman Catholic church, has received a letter from C. Copeland, army Scripture reader, telling him that his son, Stephen A. Todd, of Trotter, was wounded and is in Ward No. 4, General Hospital No. 12, in France. The letter was written on November 4 and reads as follows: "Dear Mr. Todd—I am writing at the request of your son, Stephen. I suppose you will have been informed officially that he has been wounded in the neck, arm and leg. He just came to this hospital, so one cannot say much about his wounds. However, he was quite cheerful when I saw him and no doubt if he gets along well he will soon be sent to England. I have put the number of the ward above so that you can write. Please write quickly, as the boys love to get mail from home. Your son has splendid nurses and doctors here (this is the Harvard U. S. A. unit which is working a British hospital) and an American chaplain. I am sure you would be proud of your boy and thank God his life is spared. Your son sends his best love, hoping all are well."

Todd was born in Connellsville in 1894 and was working at Trotter previous to entering the military service.

FORMER CAPT. FRANK COX MEMBER OF "TREAT 'EM ROUGH" UNIT
Frank Cox, former first sergeant of Company D, 10th Regiment, and later captain of Company G, 3rd Regiment, Pennsylvania Reserve Militia, is now at Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., as a member of Company A, 346th Battalion, Tank Corps.

We sure have a fine bunch of boys who were getting in fine shape to live up to the motto, "Treat 'Em Rough," which is known all over the country. Private Cox writes when wishing a Connellsville friend a happy Thanksgiving.

CHARLES TIKEY WOUNDED.

Trotter Soldier Writes of Being in Hospital in France.

Writing to his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Tikey of Trotter, Charles Tikey, of Company C, 47th Infantry, states he is in a base hospital in France, suffering from a wound of the left arm. He says he is getting along nicely and expects to leave the hospital in a few weeks. The letter was written on October 25th.

Court House Closed.

The Fayette county court house was closed this afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock during the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson Barnett, of this city, a sister of Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen.

Socks Donated.
The Vanderbilt Fancywork club has donated 12 pairs of socks, knitted by the members, to the Connellsville chapter of the Red Cross.

NO PAPER TOMORROW.

In accordance with custom there will be no issue of The Courier tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day.

NATHAN WOODWARD.

Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, officiated at the funeral of Nathan Woodward, held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Woodward in East Apple street. The pallbearers were Charles DeCamp, Lewis Lacey, Antonio Cuneo, William Paisley and the Messers. Finello. Among the out of town persons attending the funeral were Mrs. Anna Noonan, Mrs. Alex. Eddies, Mrs. Bessie Brunner, Miss Ethel Cavanaugh and Miss Dorothy McCaffrey, all of Pittsburgh.

THANKSGIVING HERE WILL BE QUIET EVENT

Union Service in Morning, Football in Afternoon Features.

CAUSE FOR REJOICING

Because of Ending of War Day Will Have Greater Significance Than for Many a Day: Sunrise Prayer Service in Methodist Episcopal Church.

Thanksgiving will be quietly observed in Connellsville tomorrow, as usual. The union church services will be held in the morning at the Trinity Lutheran church. The only afternoon attraction will be a football game between the Connellsville high school and the Dunbar township high school at Fayette field. The four theatres of the city have billed extra good attractions for tomorrow. Thanksgiving this year will mean much more in many homes and throughout the nation at large than it has at any time during the past. The ending of the war with the Allies and America's victorious over the Hun will be mentioned in every blessing asked tomorrow. Though very few homes will be gladdened by the return of their boys tomorrow, many will be happier in knowing their sons are safe and will return in time. A turkey dinner will be served to the patients in the emergency hospital, for influenza and at the Cottage State hospital the patients will be served a chicken dinner.

A sunrise prayer meeting will be held at 7 o'clock in the morning at the Methodist Episcopal church. No early morning services will be held elsewhere.

The union Thanksgiving services at the Lutheran church will be at 10 o'clock. Rev. G. W. Buckner will preside. The following program will be carried out: Invocation, Rev. R. W. Reinman; President's proclamation, Rev. I. C. Nace, scripture lesson, Rev. J. H. Lamberson; offering, Rev. E. B. Burgess; sermon, Rev. J. S. Showers; prayer, Rev. J. L. Proud; benediction, Rev. Wilbur Nelson. Music for the services will be furnished by the choir of the Lutheran church.

NO TURKEY DINNER THIS YEAR AT THE COTTAGE HOSPITAL.

Donations Fail to Arrive as in Former Years: Fatal Bird Ready at Emergency Institution.

For the first time in years the patients at the Cottage State hospital will not be served with a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving. However, a splendid chicken dinner, of which virtually all of the 22 patients will be able to partake, will be ready. Until noon today the usual Thanksgiving donations at the hospital had not been received. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union donated carnations for the sick. The four influenza patients are getting along very nicely.

A real Thanksgiving dinner, consisting of turkey and all the trimmings, will be served at the emergency hospital, donations so far towards the menu being very generous. In addition to a large turkey donated by the T. J. Hooper class of the First Presbyterian church, Mrs. R. S. McKee, superintendent of the hospital, this morning reported the following donations: Fourteen glasses of jelly and one of relish. Mrs. Charles J. Gray, ice cream, C. F. Hurst, fruit, James Rappert, fruit and nuts, Mrs. L. P. McCormick.

To new patients were admitted since yesterday and Ellis Riley of Dunbar township, was discharged, having entirely recovered from influenza. The number of patients remaining is 14. The fruit given by Mr. Rappert included two dozen oranges, one dozen grape fruit, a large basket of red grapes, one-half peck of apples and one dozen of bananas. He also donated two pounds of English walnuts.

Mrs. W. D. McGinnis sent two dozen beautiful carnations.

NEWS CONFLICTING

Telegram Reports Death of Coalbrook Boys: Letters Says Safe.

After receiving a letter written on October 25th from her son, Grover P. Adams, stating he was in a base hospital, not feeling very well, Mrs. Sarah E. Adams of near Coalbrook, received a telegram yesterday from the War Department, stating that her son was killed in action on September 28.

The letter Mrs. Adams received from her son was very brief and did not state if he was wounded or was ill of disease. Owing to the fact that the telegram stating Adams was killed several days before the letter was written by him to his mother, Mrs. Adams is very much perplexed regarding the late of her son.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN LOG HUTS HOLD AGAINST BOLSHEVIK

Rigors of Arctic Winter Beset Forces Combatting Russians in Kadesh Region.

By Associated Press.
AKHANGEL, Nov. 27.—In log huts and wind shelters made of birch barks American troops are holding the line against the Bolsheviks on the middle section of the northern front in the region of Kadesh. After 10 weeks of fighting in swamps and thick undergrowth the Americans now are snowed in, along an ice filled stream on the opposite side of which are camp-fires of the enemy. Under British command and with British forces aiding them the American infantrymen on this sector probably have had more fighting and more hardships than other American units in Russia. The force has been operating between the Dima river and the Volodga railroad through a territory of swamps and forests. The roads have been in bad condition and the only means of transporting supplies to a greater part of the front has been wheel barrow shaped carts drawn by sturdy Russian peons.

DELEGATES VIEW RUINS

Armistice Conference Drive 10 Hours Through Devastated Region.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 27.—The armistice conference between the German delegates and Marshal Foch and his associates early this month were carried out in the most business-like manner possible and apparently without noticeable incident; according to long accounts of the conference given in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung by a member of the German party. After the French met the German commissioners they were driven for 10 hours in automobiles to an appointed rendezvous. "It seems to me," says the narrator, "that the drive was intentionally prolonged in order to carry us through the devastated provinces and prepare us for the hardest conditions which would become a matter of demand. One of the Frenchmen pointed to a heap of ruins saying, 'Behold St. Quentin.'"

KAISER MUST LEAVE

If Presence in Holland Becomes Perilous to That Nation.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 27.—William Hohenzollern will have to leave Holland if his presence there becomes perilous to that country, Premier Ruijs de Beerenbroek is quoted by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express as declaring in the second chamber of the Dutch parliament November 26. "The Kaiser is in Holland as a private person," said the premier, as quoted by the correspondent. "The hospitality of the country is extended him in accordance with a century-old tradition, but it goes without saying that the moment his sojourn becomes a danger to the state he will have to leave."

BARUCH OR TREASURY

McAdoo's Place Offered to War Industries Board Head, Is Report.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, it was understood today, has been offered the post of Secretary of the Treasury to succeed Secretary McAdoo.

Whether he will be nominated is an open question. Without actually declining to serve it is said Mr. Baruch has urged upon the President strongly his belief that he should not enter the cabinet on the ground that his wealth largely in government and other securities would be seriously embarrassing.

39 PRIESTS MURDERED

Other Crimes of Germans Too Terrible to Relate, Cardinal Says.

By Associated Press.
MALINES, Belgium, Nov. 27.—Havas.—Forty-nine Belgian priests were tortured and put to death by the Germans during the occupation, Cardinal Mercier, the primate of Belgium, declared in an interview today. He added that 12,000 men were removed from the diocese to Germany where they were forced to work. Other crimes committed by the Germans, the cardinal said, were too long and too terrible to relate briefly.

COUNTER REVOLT

In Germany Is Reported in Delayed Message From Berlin.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 29.—General von der Marwitz, former aide-camp to Emperor Wilhelm and later commander of German forces on the Western front, has arrived at Treves with a big army and appears to be preparing for a counter revolution according to a sensational dispatch from Berlin, filed there on November 21.

FALL OF SOLE FORECAST

Foreign Minister Will Step Down During Conference, According to Report Reaching Paris; Keen Interest in Gathering at Capital Shown

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, via Copenhagen, Nov. 27.—The German federal conference has adopted the following resolution: "There is absolute necessity for all German tribes to act in union for the maintenance of Germany's unity and to fight all separatist movements. The proposal for a speedy summoning of the national assembly meets general approval. "Until the meeting of the national assembly the soldiers' and workmen's council will represent the people's will. "The administration of the empire is requested to work for the securing of a preliminary peace with the utmost speed."

BERLIN, Tuesday, Nov. 26.—The events of the last few days, culminating Monday in the meeting of the heads of the various German states at Berlin, have indicated that with the exception of the numerically unimportant Spartacus group there is complete agreement in Germany that a national assembly must be held.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 27.—Keenest interest is felt throughout the German empire in the result of the conf. of representatives of the federal states at Berlin. The question of summoning the national assembly and insuring the unity of the empire are being discussed everywhere. It is generally expected that a decision will be reached to call the national assembly at the earliest possible moment. Otherwise Bavaria, Wurttemberg and Baden are reported to be considering the formation of a separate republic. Hesse, Hanover and German-Austria are also credited with demanding a meeting of the national assembly.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—(Havas)—Dr. W. S. Solf, the German foreign minister, may resign very soon, it is indicated by developments during debate at the conference of the German states now being held at Berlin, according to Berna advices to the Petit Parisien.

CROWN PRINCE HOPEFUL

Expects to Return to Germany: Friedrich Says in Newspaper Interview.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 27.—The former German crown prince had not been heard from his father for weeks up to the time he was taken to the island of Wieringen, according to an interview he gave to newspaper men. "A change is coming in Germany but one has to be careful about prophesying," he replied to a question as to what he thought of the revolution in Germany. "Will you return to Germany?" was the next question. "Yes, when the situation changes, but when?" Here Frederick William broke off to testify to the excellence of food in Holland.

AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Nov. 27.—The examination of American prisoners released from German prison camps and reaching identification camps virtually has been concluded.

The examinations indicate that the physical condition of the men in general is as good as could be expected. General complaint was made by both officers and men that their food was extremely bad and their quarters uncomfortable. Specimens of bread brought back were found to contain sawdust.

NEXT WAR LOAN IN APRIL

That Is Indicated in Treasury Certificate Announcement.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—In preparation for the fifth war loan the Treasury announced today the issuance of $500,000 or more of certificates of indebtedness, payable May 6, 1919, and paying four and one-fourth per cent interest. The subscription period will run from December 3 to December 10. The maturity dates indicate that the fifth loan will be floated in April.

Promotion for Sims.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Vice Admiral William S. Sims, commander of American naval forces in Europe since the United States went to war, has been selected for promotion to the rank of admiral, when a vacancy in the list occurs next month through the retirement of Admiral Austin M. Knight, commanding the Asiatic fleet.

Six applications for membership were received at the regular meeting of the Women's Benefit association of the Maccabees held last evening in Moose hall. Mrs. Nellie G. Gonsaware of Dunbar presented a transfer card from the Uniontown review. Recently the lodge bought a service flag, on which is 48 stars, representing the sons, husbands and brothers of members of the association. It contains two white stars, one for Miss Anna Burns, a Red Cross stenographer in Italy, and the other for Mrs. Eva Kats Allen, in the service in Washington, D. C. A special meeting will be held Monday evening, December 2, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Howard, 112 West Apple street, to plan for a bazaar to be held about December 12th.

Instead of the usual paper meeting tonight at the First Baptist church the Young Women's Mission Guild will present a patriotic and missionary pageant entitled "Christianity Enlightening the World," at 7:45 o'clock. About 25 young women and children dressed in the costumes of many nations will take part. The pageant is a unique, interesting and instructive presentation of the influence of Christianity under American leadership on welfare and world progress and is especially timely and important in view of the new era of peace and reconstruction. An offering for missions will be taken.

SISTER OF TONY DELUKA DECLARES CONFESSION A LIE

Mount Pleasant Girl Says She Implicated Brother Under Pressure: Boy Is Held.

Special to The Courier. MOUNT PLEASANT, Nov. 27.—Following a hearing yesterday afternoon before Justice L. S. Rhoades, Tony Deluka, the 17-year-old Italian boy named by his sister Rosa in a confession to the officers as having killed Helen Mehanisky with a shotgun at the Deluka home, Monday evening, was held for court.

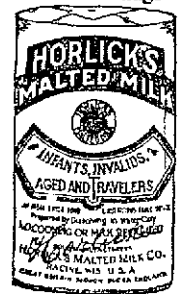

Called before the justice as a witness Rosa repudiated the confession, though admitting the signature attached was hers. She said she made it only when the officers told her that if she did not she would be held. It having been established that she was in the room with the murdered girl, she pronounced the confession a "lie." The coat the girl wore, perforated by the charge of shot and wads from the gun and the confession were exhibited. Burgess S. P. Stevens and Constable Diane R. Conneltsville testified to the girl having signed the confession. Chief of Police Robert Smith was examined relative to the confession and other details, including the presence of smoke in the room at the Deluka home and the search for the gun. The weapon has not been located.

There was a story about that the shot came from the basement where men were said to have been playing cards. Investigation revealed no hole in the floor.

District Attorney N. A. Carr appeared for the commonwealth. Attorney Phil K. Shaner of Greensburg represented the defense.

FOR ARMY NURSE STUDENTS

The memory of Florence Nightingale, the world's first woman war nurse, is honored in the design of the insignia of the American Army Nurses' school, recently established. Florence Nightingale in the Crimean war was known as "the Lady of the Lamp," and the new insignia has a lamp superimposed on the caduceus of the medical corps.

Whale Meat at New York.

The ancient firm of G. Apicello & Sons, fish dealers since the days when Garibaldi lived on Staten Island, has received a 1,200-pound consignment of whale flesh. It came properly frozen, from Alaska, and since there was so much of it and since the Apicello firm had reason to think that the New York public lacked knowledge and experience of its perfections, it was "marked down" at the price of 25 cents a pound. But from the moment it was placed on the counters it began to go like the proverbial hot cakes.

Whole meat was served for the first time in New York last winter at a dinner given specially to introduce it at the Museum of Natural History. But that meat was rancid. Persons present at that luncheon and among Apicello's earliest buyers recently say that whoever once tastes the genuine article will avoid the society of the canned substitute for the remainder of his natural life.

Colonel's Orders.

My brother-in-law, stationed at one of the southern camps, says the majority of fellows in his camp come from the southern cotton fields and are illiterate. Mail sent to them was always improperly addressed, and the commander of their regiment, wishing to avoid the confusion incidental to locating the addresses of mail improperly addressed, posted the following notice:

"Please have your mail addressed as follows: John Doe Company—Regiment—Camp." And in the next batch of mail received at the camp more than half the letters were addressed to John Doe.

PNEUMONIA CAUSE OF DEATH OF CAPT. HOWARD BRADDOCK

Letters From Friends Fail to Bear Out War Department Report of Killed.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING

As to What Rebell Upper Middletown Soldier, War Department Reporting
Him Missing, Red Cross a Prisoner;
James Bierer Wounded; War News

Captain Howard C. Braddock, commander of the Supply Company of the 110th Infantry, was not killed in action, as a War Department message to his father, James S. Braddock, of Mount Pleasant says, but died of pneumonia, according to private advice. A letter from Captain Gerard S. Bryce to Mr. Braddock, received this week, told of Captain Braddock dying of pneumonia. A similar letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Dilworth of Conneltsville, from their son, Lieutenant J. Montgomery Dilworth, Supply Company, Captain Braddock died October 24, the letter from Captain Bryce said.

NOT MISSING, BUT

IN HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Chad Silbaugh of Upper Middletown received word that their son, Private Alvin H. Silbaugh, of a machine gun battalion, was reported missing in action since September 12. Later they received a letter from the Red Cross stating that he was safe and that the report that he was missing was probably due to his address being changed so often since his arrival overseas.

UNIONTOWN BOY IS

WOUNDED BY SHRAPNEL

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bierer of Uniontown received a letter from their son, Sergeant James Bierer, stating that he had been wounded when a piece of shrapnel hit him in the right side of the breast. He is now in a base hospital rapidly recovering.

"DID MY BEST, BUT

WON'T WORK ANY MORE."

Writing to his sister, Mrs. Mary C. Praton of Canonsburg, Private Charles McKnight of near Brewsville, Pa., states that he had been severely wounded and is in a hospital in this country. The writer said: "I did my best, but I will never be able to do another day's work." McKnight was with the engineers.

ITCHING IRRITATION

EASILY CURED

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting, greasy ointment. Try Hekara, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so clean that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barbers' itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleansed and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hekara at small expense, A. A. Clarke's Drug Store is selling a liberal-sized jar at 35 cents, and in addition giving away to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it—Adv.

POPULAR MACHINIST THANKS TEN-HERBS FOR GOOD HEALTH

Joseph Majes, 830 S. Canal Street, Pittsburg, Says Ten-Herbs Did the Work.

"For a number of years I have been a great sufferer with my stomach," stated Mr. Joseph Majes, of 830 South Canal street, Pittsburg, Pa., a well-known machinist, to the Ten-Herbs Man, who is introducing the new normal preparation, Ten-Herbs.

"My stomach was in such a weak condition that I could not keep down the lightest kind of food and it would ferment and cause gas to form. I had to be very careful about what I ate and I was so nervous that I could never get a good night's sleep; I had palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, my liver was inactive and I had terrible pains in my back; I was always constipated and could never find any medicine to give me relief until I began to take your Ten-Herbs. My appetite is good, I sleep well at night and am not as nervous as I was; it has relieved my constipation and the pains in my back. I feel better in every way."

There are numerous symptoms of this trouble that Ten-Herbs can relieve. In fact any one of the following may denote affections of the stomach: indigestion, dyspepsia, bad breath, sick, throbbing headaches, that tired feeling, night sweats, poor circulation, costiveness, a coated tongue or a poor complexion.

Ten-Herbs is a vegetable preparation, extracted from the roots, herbs, barks, berries and fibers of numerous medicinal plants. It is nature's own remedy and works wonders. It gives almost immediate benefit and leads to permanent relief in practically every case where people suffer as above outlined.

Ten-Herbs is sold in Conneltsville at the Conneltsville Drug Co's. Store.

At the Theatres

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE LURE OF LUXURY"—A five-part Bluebird feature, starring Ruth Clifford, is being shown today. Miss Clifford is seen in the role of Dale Aldis, the unloved daughter of Mirza Roachat, who lives in a queer foreign village, and returns to rescue the son of the village drunkard from a gang of rough boys. When her mother dies she has attained the age of 30 and returns from school to occupy the mansion. She finds John Coventry, the boy grown to manhood, but with a tendency toward drunkenness. By her friendship she holds back the tides of heredity and makes a man of him. A selected comedy is also being shown on Thanksgiving afternoon and evening: "The Appearance of Evil," a World feature, with June Elvidge, the charming screen star, supported by Frank Mayo, and other screen favorites will be shown. This is a most unusual picture. It is entirely different from the usual sort of screen dramas, and the story is so surprising that the picture will please all who see it. It grips and entertains you from the start to finish. In the role of Maida Miss Elvidge is seen in one of the most fascinating characters she has yet assumed. Up to the very conclusion of the picture it is impossible for the audience to get a real line on Maida and the cause of her actions. You are certain to enjoy this picture to the utmost. A weekly review will also be shown.

THE SOISSON.

"MODERN LOVE"—A five-part Jewel attraction, in which Mae Murray, the popular screen star, is appearing in a splendid role, is being shown today. The picture is one that explains the real meaning of love and is one that will please all. Miss Murray is supported by a cast of unusual excellence. A two-act comedy is also being shown. The attraction for Thanksgiving is "Alimony," a big production, starring Josephine Whitehall and an all star cast. The story is interesting and the scenic effects are extremely beautiful. A splendid comedy will be included on the program. Friday and Saturday Dorothy Phillips, the captivating Jewel star, will appear in "A Soul for Sale," a dramatic six reel production. The story is that of a noble girl of today, blackened in the eyes of the man she loves through the selfishness of relatives, until her fighting spirit wins back her name and happiness. This is a gripping picture of the pitfalls of society ambitions, and a love story long to be remembered. Monday Norma Talmadge will be starred in a splendid production.

THE ORPHEUM.

We beg to call to your attention the fact that Lila Lee, the dainty Paramount star, a young actress of remarkable ability, will be seen in her first photoplay, "The Cruise of the Make-Believes," at our theatre today. Miss Lee, beautiful and talented, sixteen years old, was far from a favorite in vaudeville and known as "Cuddles." She is a new star in the silent drama, but it is said that her abilities and personal charm are of that detectable quality as will soon make her name famous wherever motion pictures are exhibited. In her premier vehicle Miss Lee has an ideal characterization, that of a girl of the slums of noble ideals who, after a series of unusually interesting experiences finds love and happiness. She is admirably supported by excellent screen players, and it is safe to say that "The Cruise of the Make-Believes" forms an entertainment which for originality and artistry seldom has been excelled.

Speaking of Caps for Christmas

No one thinks of disobeying the mandate or even the requests of Uncle Sam this year, and he has already told what he expects in the matter of Christmas giving. We are expected to cut down expenditures, to send as few parcels as possible by mail or express, to give inexpensive and useful presents to one another, and to do our shopping very early. Even the boys over there can only have a small box—three pounds in weight. This being the case, we won't feel like an extravagant Christmas at home.

The breakfast or bonnet cap presents itself with sweet assurance—it is pretty, it is useful and it is inexpensive. It makes a small parcel and weighs next to nothing. Uncle Sam is bound to smile approval of it and it is sure to be more popular than ever this Christmas. Four pretty caps for various ages are shown in the picture, suited to feminine heads over which only a few summers have passed, and to others that can look back over the greater part of a century—or to those between these two extremes.

In the center is a cap for a young girl. It is made of light blue silk and has a narrow frill of Val lace about the face. Across the back there is a cape that hangs over the neck and is extended into rounded tabs at each side. It is edged with a frill of lace also. Three bows finish the cap, one at the front and one at each side. Two little pink chiffon roses are set at the center of each bow.

The two caps at the left are suited to many ages—they are neither youthful nor elderly. The upper one has a crown of net, with rows of narrow ribbon in scant ruffles all over it, and a frill of lace about the face. There are bows and ends of narrow ribbon at each side. Below is a triangular cap of figured ribbon, with lace and ribbon frills about it and bows at the side with long hanging loops.

At the right there is a cap of white dotted net overdressed with black chiffon. It has a plaiting of net about it and tiny lavender buds set above the frill. Grandma will enjoy this one.

New Type of Gown.

The evening gown has changed until there are only a few of the full dress gowns remaining. It is because full dress occasions are becoming more rare. However, this has served to bring into greater prominence the dinner gown, and it has been developed until better models make their appearance every day. Women are having a chance to wear a totally new type of gown—the semi-dress gown, formal enough to allow a hat to be worn with it.

"To help make strong keep the red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Cancer Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time. It is now being used by over three million people annually, including such men as Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, formerly Secretary of the Treasury and ex-Governor of Iowa, former United States Senator and Vice-Presidential nominee, Charles A. Towne; General John L. Goss (Retired), the dramatic boy of Shiloh, who was sergeant in the United States Army when only 12 years of age; also United States Judge G. W. Alderson of the Court of Claims of Washington, and others. Nuxated Iron is dispensed by all good druggists everywhere.

An International Service Built on Tiny Profits Per Pound

Some industries have been able to get in step with war demands more quickly than others.

In many cases mighty plants have sprung up—but at a prodigious cost.

The packing industry was able to adapt itself to unheard of demands more quickly, perhaps, than any other industry. And this was because the vast equipment of packing plants, refrigerator cars, branch houses, etc., had been gradually developed to its present state of efficiency, so that in the crucial hour it became a mighty international system for war service.

And how had this development taken place?

Not by making vast inroads into the capital wealth of the country, but largely by using, from year to year, a portion of the profits, to provide for expansion.

Swift & Company's profits have always been so tiny, compared with sales, that they have had practically no effect on the price of meat, (amounting to only a fraction of a cent per pound).

And yet the owners of the business have been content with reasonable returns on their capital, and have been able, year after year, to put part of the profits back into the business to provide for its expansion.

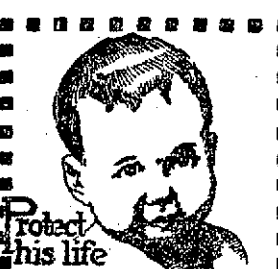

These fractions of tiny profits have been repaid to the public many fold in the form of better service, and better and cheaper meat, and made it possible for Swift & Company to meet, undaunted, the sudden cry for meat for overseas.

Could any other method of financing a vital industry involve less hardship to the people of the country? Could there be a better instance of true "profit-sharing" than this return in added usefulness and in national preparedness?

Stomach Misery

Get Rid of That Sourness, Gas and Indigestion.
When your stomach is out of order or runs down, your food doesn't digest. It ferments in your stomach and forms gas which causes sourness, heartburn, foul breath, pain at pit of stomach and many other miserable symptoms.

Almo-na stomach tablets will give joyful relief in five minutes; if taken regularly for two weeks they will turn your flabby, sour, tired out stomach into a sweet, energetic, perfect working one.

You can't be very strong or vigorous if your food only half digests. Your appetite will go and nausea, dizziness, biliousness, nervousness, sick headache and constipation will follow.

Almo-na stomach tablets are small and easy to swallow and are guaranteed to banish indigestion and any or all of the above symptoms or money back. For sale by A. A. Clarke and all leading druggists.—Adv.

THANKSGIVING AND RESOLUTION.

Tomorrow should be for each of us not only a day of sincere and heartfelt thanksgiving, but also a day of equally sincere and earnest resolution. Out of a gratitude that is as deep as it should be, abiding we ought with gladness and singleness of heart offer up both thanksgiving and praise for the free bestowal of the rich gifts of the year.
And with a realization that the multiplied blessings have brought, added responsibilities, larger opportunities, and duties, we should face the coming year with a firm purpose animating us and a new hope to inspire us.If in our observance of the day we bring ourselves to understand and consciously to feel that in our individual lives and in the life of our nation we are on the threshold of better and more fruitful days than the world has ever seen, we will have placed ourselves in an attitude to be fully appreciative of the blessings of the most momentous year in our history. If we only partially comprehend what has been the height and depth of God's providence during the past twelve months, we ought then be ready and willing to assume the larger part of the future demands that we shall fill.The events of the past year have made no fact clearer than that there rests upon every citizen the obligation to make service for and to his fellow and to and for our country and community the rule and guide to action.
Except for the cheerful readiness with which the flower of our young manhood answered our country's call to duty, the creation of the finest spirited army the world ever saw assembled would not have been possible. Except for the unselfish services of the citizens at home the equipment and support of that army, and the government back of it, would never have been achieved on the prodigious and magnificent scale that has characterized our conduct of the war.The achievement of these things, and by the agencies through which they were wrought, has proven the importance, value and necessity of each person doing his or her share, or a little more, and with such a forgetfulness of self that merges the activities of all into one common effort.While the restoration of peace will not require the same sort of endeavor, on our part, to meet the problems of peace and to preserve the relations war has taught us we should sustain to each other, we will fail to catch the spirit of Thanksgiving if tomorrow we refuse to make the high resolve that service shall henceforth be exalted to a place of supreme importance in our lives.It must have been an oversight in not making Henry's "Peace Ship" the flagship of the Winter Capital moving squadron.Let those who have the price be thankful that the festive bird can be purchased with real money.Our rejoicing and thanksgiving over victory will be tempered by the knowledge that the names of 20,000 soldier dead have yet to be reported.Who would not feel honored to be made commander of the Fighting 17th, yes, even to be a buck private in the ranks?Don't let tomorrow be the only Thanksgiving day of the year.Raising $75,000 for the War Chest ought to be easy for us because it will make things easy for the boys Over There.

Open Season Tomorrow.

The Mount Pleasant Superior handball team will open its season tomorrow night at the Mount Pleasant armory with the Latrobe A. C. The game is the first to be played in this section this year. Edward Wall of Scottsdale will referee the initial contest.

Fourteen Arrests Made.

Fourteen prisoners were given hearings at police court this morning. Seven were sentenced to serve 48 hours in the cells and six paid fines. One was discharged. Forfeits amounted to $20.50.

Don't Slop Over

From Manufacturers Record.

Through neurotic sympathy toward the vilest criminals in the world's history we are in danger of losing the victory won on the battlefield. Every tear shed by the hypocritical liars and looters and outragers of Germany in pleading for an easier armistice and for foodstuffs is merely a coward's effort to reach the maudlin sentiment of a nation, many of whose people have often been inclined to yield to wrong in preference to standing for the right, thus permitting a cotton string to represent their backbone. The future civilization would be endangered if we should give any heed to these appeals of the neurotic sentiments of flabby-minded people.

Generosity to a beaten foe is an appeal which touches the sympathy of men and women who foolishly think of this war in terms of the wars of other days. But this was merely a plan to murder in order to rob. The frightfulness which made the hell of Belgium and France and other overrun lands, violating every law of man and God, was merely the fulfillment of the long-time teachings of the whole German people.

The women of Germany appealed for easier peace terms and for an armistice on the hypocritical plea of their sufferings, and thus caught a few American men and women of that neurotic temperament which betrays the cells of the rapist with flowers and fills it with scented notes. We should remind the German women of the dying babies of Belgium and France, of the women outraged through the long four years of war, of the poisoned wells and of all the other horrible atrocities which have marked the accursed work of a nation of fiends against which German women never protested. The man or woman in this country who is not willing to stand firmly for eternal justice in the punishment of the murderer or the rapist is morally and mentally weak and is without a character worthy of the respect of decent, honest people.

America, sentimentally inclined and easily misled by agitators in public as well as in private life, is always in danger of slopping over. This fact is often seen when some atrocious criminal, having been sentenced to death, immediately evokes the maudlin sympathy of neurotics, who entirely forget the sufferings of the victim.

In thinking of Germany we must think of that nation as of a whole people definitely for years committed to the criminality of the last four years. If we should count as of no avail the deaths of millions of soldiers who have been murdered by Germany, if we should shut our ears to the walls of the women and babies who died on the Lusitania, if we should close our eyes and our hearts to the sufferings of the mangled children and of the women in France, Belgium, Italy and elsewhere dishonored by and with the approval of the German Government and the German people, we would still be bound in duty to all the civilization of the ages to come to stand firm and unflinchingly for the punishment of Germany.

A Baltimore business man of German descent, knowing Germany and the German people for many years, has within the last few days said that the whole German people are laughing at their slaves as they see the effect which their appeals for mercy are having in this country. He knows that the German people. He says Americans do not. He is of German descent and intimately in touch with German life, and he voices the views of intelligent men and women everywhere who, knowing Germany, know that the entire German race upheld the war, gloated in it so long as success seemed certain, rejoiced in the hope of looting the world, cared not that the women and children of Belgium and France and other countries were treated as never were women and children treated before in human history.

Now these clinging hypocritical liars, these looters and robbers and high-waymen, these deep-dyed villainous murderers are rolling their eyes to Heaven and asking for sympathy, and yet not one single word of penitence has come out of Germany. Not a single word has been uttered by German men or women which indicates any sense of sin or shame, nor have German women expressed any regret for the horrors inflicted upon the people of France and Belgium and Italy and Serbia and Poland by their fathers and husbands and sons.

These unrepentant criminals appeal for sympathy—sympathy for themselves, but not for their victims. Such is the appeal of the German women who so long as Germany was victorious on the battlefield made no effort to stop the war in order to relieve their sufferings, but now that they have been forced to stop by the allied police of civilization, and are to be brought to the bar of justice, they are like hypocrites pleading for sympathy and mercy. Sympathy for such a nation would be on a par with sympathy for the Devil himself. The Devil could not possibly surpass Germany in seeking to use the liver of Heaven for the purpose of doing the work of hell.

America should not slop over. Let it not waste any neurotic sympathy upon a nation which now seeks by hypocrisy and by lying to win through maudlin sympathy the victory which it lost on the battlefield.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Nov. 27.—Four hundred three garments, 83 pairs of shoes and 72 loads of coal were distributed during the past year by the A-sociated Charities, according to a report submitted at the annual meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Lucy A. Poole in Spring street. Twenty-six families were given assistance and 45 homes were visited. The expenditures amounted to $158.08 and there is a balance in the treasury of $38, the treasurer reported.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Rev. H. D. Allen; secretary, Rev. J. O. Glenn; treasurer, Mrs. Josiah Reynolds. Mrs. Poole, Mrs. W. W. Elcher and Mrs. J. O. Glenn were named on the investigating committee.

Parcel Inspection.
Parcels to be sent to the boys overseas will be inspected in the room over Raygor's store Friday afternoon between 1 and 5 o'clock.

James G. Burkholder.
The funeral of James G. Burkholder, whose body was found along Mount creek after he had been missing for three weeks, was held yesterday afternoon from the home at Everett, Rev. J. E. Hutchinson officiating. Interment was made in the Hoke cemetery near Laurelville.

Automobile Damaged.
Three boys, said to be of well-known families, yesterday stole a Ford car belonging to John Stoner and started toward Mount Pleasant. Owing to lack of oil the machine broke down near Alverton and was deserted after the boys had removed the tools and inner tubes. The owner of the car has agreed to drop the case if the damage is made good.

The Same Old Story.
Just when every woman wants a new dress, coat or suit for Thanksgiving and the average store is getting top-notch prices. Dendiner launches a sale that would be sensational in its values even at the end of the season, a great Thanksgiving sale, the year's biggest ready-to-wear event. Coats at $19.75; dresses at $15.00; suits at $19.75; girls' coats at $1.95. You owe it to yourself to come and see them, try them on and use your own judgment whether it's a bargain or not. NEW RECORDS for your TALKING MACHINE

Barrientos and Lanaro, two of the most famous stars in the Metropolitan Opera's great galaxy, have joined voices for their first concerted Columbia number this month. They have selected the thrilling climax of Verdi's "Traviata"—the brilliant "Parigi O Cara." Here is an exquisite record of a great and beautiful aria by two of the most famous voices in the world.

The sparkling "Alla Vita" from the famous opera "Ballo in Maschera" might have been written especially for Stracuzzi, so completely does it fit in the richest range of his glorious baritone voice. Stracuzzi has made the most of his opportunity in a glorious record of this great opera which is now on sale among the December Columbia Records.

Barbara Maurel, the dainty Alsatian songstress who has created a veritable sensation here, sings two more of her delightful old ballads for Columbia. The selections are "Slumber Boat" and "Song of the Chimney," both on the same record.

"Carmen" and "Il Trovatore" are undoubtedly the world's two most popular operas. It is fitting, therefore, that the great orchestra of the Metropolitan Opera House, which recently signed a contract to make records of operatic music exclusively for Columbia, should have taken selections from these two glorious operas for their December Columbia Record. Everyone knows the music, but to hear it played by this famous ensemble of musicians is to find an added delight in the dramatic strains.

These four records are but a few of the December Columbia group, which includes not only operatic arias, but dance records, popular songs, instrumental, Christmas novelty records, and many others too numerous to mention here.

"FLU" AT INDIAN HEAD

Several Families Are Severely Afflicted; One Death Reported.

Influenza is reported to be spreading in the Indian Creek valley. At Indian Head there are said to be several cases of whole families being afflicted. One death has been reported, being a child in the family of William Cramer. Every one in the home is ill, it is stated.

Mrs. A. White, Mrs. Albert Miller and John Davis are reported to be very ill. Several members of the family of James Wilcox are down.

Train the Cuticle.

If the hands are not good and the nails badly shaped try to improve the latter by training the cuticle. Every night soak the fingers in hot water for five minutes. Then with an orange-wood stick press back the cuticle to lengthen the nails. Afterward rub in cold cream. Do not omit this or the soaking will make the cuticle very dry.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MOVEMENT TO GIVE TEACHERS MORE PAY IS WELL UNDER WAY

An Emergency Fund of $15,000,000 for Use of School Districts is to be Proposed to Legislature.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26.—"The movement to have the next legislature make an emergency appropriation to enable school districts of Pennsylvania to increase the salaries of teachers is well under way in every section of the state, and it is being strongly supported," according to a statement by Dr. J. George Becht, secretary of the State Board of Education.

"We drafted the necessary legislation for an appropriation to afford a 25 per cent increase for teachers some time ago," continued Dr. Becht. "This will take something like $15,000,000, but it is generally conceded that it is just. There are teachers getting only $600, and they have remained at their posts when they easily could have earned more money in other lines. The devotion and sacrifice of the teachers should be recognized."

The State Board of Education and legislative committee of the State Educational Association approved the proposed bill.

The Sound Absorber

by Florence
Gray
Webster

THE Harvard Yale football game was on at the stadium and a demonstration of the Sound Absorber was shortly to be on. Hon. William Gazukes, the millionaire, who seemed to be renewing his youth, sat chatting excitedly with the inventor and a party of friends. It seems that Hon. Gazukes had recently been forced, through a practical joke on himself, to become interested in this sound absorber and to realize that it had a variety of possibilities, for his friend Faxon, the inventor, had been in wait for him one day by the side of a building. He had seen the millionaire coming toward him, earnestly engaged in conversation and wishing to demonstrate his invention. He had quickly sprung upon a barrel and, as quickly he had set the absorber in rapid vibration so as to disturb the atmosphere before the faces of the gentleman. Neither was able to hear the other and after much consternation Faxon, with a twinkle in his eye, confronted them.

"The millionaire then became anxious to try it on a crowd, and had secured seats for his friends in the bleachers about the stadium, all of them being located within the Yale cheering line. "Little do people about us know what we have on our minds," he was saying.

"They were happily expectant and laughed as the old gentleman added, "Or should I say 'on our coats'?" for each one of the 30 men in the party was supplied with a sound absorber.

This invention was simply a circular plate, with curving edges looking something like a flattened bowl. The flaps of their coats to hang out and hide them from the side view. The batteries which were to set the fans in motion were in an inner pocket of each coat.

Harvard rooters were busy alternately with Yale's. The game stood 0-0 for Harvard at the first half. Bands were playing and college songs had been sung. Red and blue flags and banners were waved in the spirit of the game of the season. The women, whose costumes displayed predominantly the colors of their respective teams, lent a gayety to the scene.

The Crimson had emitted in one roar "Rah rah rah! Rah rah rah! Rah rah rah! Harvard!" and Yale was getting ready.

Young men, swinging their arms to get the Elts to yell together, looked in surprise that there was no response. Again they tried, but could not hear themselves.

Everyone was wondering what was the matter. Plainly the leaders had been heard in the first place, but there was no response. No one had sense enough to close his mouth, notwithstanding it had apparently become useless for there was only an occasional sound as though half articulated, where some voices had not come within the range of the sound absorbers distributed through the crowd.

Amazement on Every Face

"Say, I shall bust," growled the inventor. "We will raise the devil. We must shut these things off for amazement was evident of every face."

"Am I bereft of my senses?" one man muttered.

Harvard, from her side, was shouting, "What's the matter with the Elts? They've lost their wind!"

Everyone was keyed to a great tension especially the Gazukes men, and all of them were greatly relieved when, on the third attempt, they heard the leaders of the Blues call "Now, together. Rah rah rah! Rah rah rah! Yale! Hoo-ray! We're all right!"

Mr. Gazukes knew it would not do to interrupt the cheering again and exhilarated with the first experiment, it was with much uneasiness that he waited for a further test at the theater later.

As the game proceeded the inventor was whispering to the millionaire. "Wouldn't it be more fun than a barrel of monkeys to take it into the gallery of the stock exchange when bids were being made? Orders would be given and, not being heard, would forever fail to be carried out. What a pandemonium would result. How funny it would be to see the quotation men running back and forth before the board as the prices came in, but with no noise in the pit."

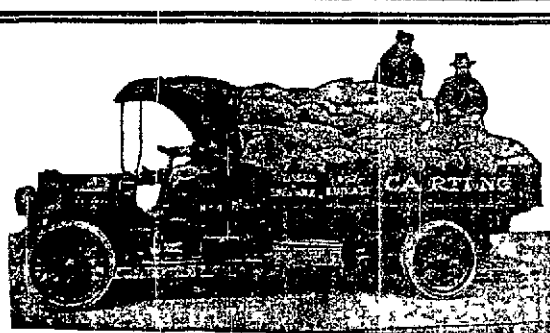

"I rather think though," said the millionaire, "that it would not be so roarsomely funny, when we were put out."

That evening at the performance of "Nancy's Fancies," the party was close to the orchestra. During the second act one of the conspirators leaned toward the millionaire, when, as previously arranged, they all turned on the absorbers suspended over their vests and endeavored to whisper. "They can't imagine what's the matter," But the joke was on him for he could not hear his own voice, and Mr. Gazukes could only guess at what he meant.

A trio behind the footlights was waiting expectantly for an introduction to their song. The conductor, who at first was quietly waving his baton, and indicating for the first violin to commence, then looked angrily at him and nodded his head wildly to go on.

People were surprised. Although these in the front seats could see the bows passing over the instruments there was no sound. The leader of the orchestra then indicated for the drummer to drum. The veins on his temples stood out and his hair seemed to rise from his forehead while his spectacles slid along his nose to the farthest distance from their proper position. Now there was consternation that, while he seemed to be giving orders no results were forthcoming, and not understanding, the audience was getting restless looking around.

Harvard's night at the theater—when she wins—are dreaded perhaps as much by conductors as by the actors, who know that interruptions may be expected at the most inopportune times, and awakening to the fact that this was some joke the conductor commenced to scan the audience.

All this had taken but a few moments, although the time seemed an eternity to the men who occupied the entire second row. Already one of the chorus girls was "ten" and they began to fear the partial obstruction of the persons in the front row would not be enough to shield them from the scrutiny of the actors. Involuntarily they drew their coats together and shut off the batteries. The millionaire rather sheepishly nudged the man next to him but he was enjoying to the utmost his diabolical plan.

When things went smoothly again, the star improvised. This was no fancy of Nancy's neither was it a fancy of ours."

Hon. William Gazukes then whispered to the inventor. "I am convinced of the satisfactory working of the marvelous sound absorber."

Plate was to catch vibrations, which are carried in waves to their ears through the atmosphere around them. In the center of the apparatus were small revolving plates, which, being faceted when set in motion would break up by an area of disturbed air the sound waves assembled in the bowl. For as the inventor argued, we cannot prevent the creation of noise, but we can in a great measure stop them from annoying us.

Not caring to attract attention, the men had hooked the plates across their inner coats at the chest, hanging them from the front edges of their innermost sleeve holes, and allowing the

PETLEY DINK—She Really Ought to Have Tipped Peter Off

By C. A. VOIGHT

He Thinks He Can Find Room

Our Nation's Greatness Founded on Fatherhood of Man and Brotherhood of God.

WITH the growth of the nation there has been corresponding growth in responsibility. The raw experiment of a nation framed from the skeleton colonies of the eastern seaboard has proved the greatest success in government the world has ever known. Democracy sits at the tables of the land today. Brotherhood asks its helping from the amply filled boards of the American home. These two attributes of the American people fully express the secret of America's success as a nation. The growth of the nation has been in accord with the extension of these ideas. They are both home ideas, and therefore they are both ideas that express the inner spirit of the day of thanksgiving.

The fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man—these were the leading conceptions of the Pilgrim Fathers. They are the leading conceptions of the sons of those fathers today. They are the conceptions that can never be made barren by hypocritical use or by designing abuse. They will stand forth in the genius and action of the American people until each year shall add praise to praise in the measure of the fullness of reason for the giving of thanks.

Peace, provision, protection—these are the prized possessions of a nation whose one aim is to exalt the ends of human liberty, to extend human democracy and to exalt the ideals of human equality. As this nation touches the world at large it does so through its leading national conceptions, and only when these are vitally assented can it take up arms for its own defense. It has the obligation resting upon it to conserve the true seeds of liberty, and this can be done only by insisting upon the sacredness of human rights and human opportunities. Hence the day set aside for thanks is a day of pure and unadulterated Americanism into which no alien sentiment can possibly enter. Hence it is that every head of the family in acting in his capacity at the head of the family board becomes the priest of the country and of which mention is made as thanksgiving themes of the day. No more can the nation depart from its lofty mission and progressive ideals than can the earth swing away from the solar attraction. The day of home happiness, the day of praise, the day of felicity is a sacred and singular day in the annals of American progress and American world influence.

Let Us Give Thanks

PLEASURES, prospects, joys, all the material blessings that abound—even ingrates can give thanks for those. Let us, at least this once in the long year, look deep into the heart of our sorrows, our failures, our disappointments, our illnesses, and see if there does not lie there, as within the hard, bitter hull of the nut, some good kernel that is sweet and wholesome and nourishing. And so give thanks for the rich, the well, the happy—surely they need not be taught to give thanks! No; it is the voice of praise that wells up through tears from the heart that echoes to which angels lean and listen.

For what we have got out of this world is easy to be grateful. But for what we have been able to give out, of goods, of sympathy, of sacrifice, of cheer, of uplift, of soul-stuff—for this we may give thanks that will blend, infinitely sweet, into the eternal music of the spheres.

So each of us, as different gems have different powers to reflect the light—let us give thanks. The Truth of It.

"Well, Nettie, did you know that we had all come for Thanksgiving?" asked Uncle John, as he clucked his little niece under the chin.

"I expected you," she said, sweetly. "Mother said that the whole family was coming, and it was a dreadful bore, but that Thanksgiving only comes once a year."

"Turkey belongs to America," the turkey is an American bird. Lucullus and the Epicureans did not know about him. He was found in his wild state after Columbus' first voyage. About a hundred years after the discovery of America broiled young turkeys became great delicacies on the Frenchman's table.

This Year the Spirit of Thanksgiving Should Properly Be Filled With Praise.

HO that views the universe in its orderly movements and sees the mind of the Almighty in the fixed blessings of existence can doubt that out from the entanglements of the world war the choice of blessing or cursing will work out in the victory of the good! The old cry, "Hail, God, be gracious!" needs no longer be voiced. God has not forgotten to be gracious. So that, as the Americans assemble in their churches on the day set apart for expressing national gratitude, they will rejoice above all else that the nation of freedom has adopted as its motto: "Whom the Lord makes free is free indeed." Let them rejoice that America is bent upon proclaiming liberty to the entire world of the earth. The curse of slavery, the curse of a blasphemous assumption that God is on the side of the strongest battalions, the curse of dishonour of human ideals and human aspirations, the curse of the establishment of force in the place of purity; of power in the place of peace—this is the cursing that is being wiped out in blood. The blessing of world peace and the prevalence of the spirit of brotherhood and of mutual advancement for the peoples—such is the peace that is being wrought out. The United States has placed its all on the altar, realizing that sacrifice is the noblest virtue of a nation. Hence, while exuberance may not abound, the spirit of thanksgiving is filled with praise over the mighty manner in which the mind of the Almighty is being made clear in the movements of the times; with the United States playing a leading part in its impressive unfolding.

No Time to Abandon Custom. It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. That custom we can follow now, even in the midst of the tragedy of a world shaken by war and tumultuous disaster, in the midst of sorrow and great peril.

She had just gotten comfortably seated when the phone rang again. "Oh, heavens!" exclaimed Bab; "there's that old phone again. I do wish people would let me stay quiet for a few minutes once in a while."

"I'll answer it, Bab," said Ann, obligingly. "It's probably one of the Bond girls to remind us that we are to play tennis with them tomorrow." And she went into the house. A few minutes later she came out flushed and angry.

"Of all the nerve I ever heard of!" she exclaimed, "that's positively the limit."

"Why, Ann," said Bab, looking up

Much More Than Material Are the Blessings for Which We Now Give Thanks.

IT IS to be hoped that this Thanksgiving will not be a pagan holiday, and that those who do render thanks will do so not as a heathen philosopher, boasting that he is not as other men, but in greater humility because he has perhaps been more greatly blessed than others.

Outside of the many material blessings that have come to the American people during the past year, which are good in so much as they contribute to wholesome human happiness, there is reason for the people of this country upon this Thanksgiving day to be unusually thoughtful concerning their place in the world, and to remember how this eminence has been obtained.

Who can look back and not see the hand of Providence shaping the destiny of America? This liberty which is the marvel and the hope of the world today was set up on these shores by God-fearing men—the pioneers who inaugurated this very Thanksgiving holiday. It was for the love of the service of God that liberty was established in America, and it was this liberty that has been the basis of our national greatness and which is to be the political salvation of the world.

America cannot look back upon its history without seeing God, and by taking thought cannot fail to acknowledge its gratitude for all his benefits. With that stage of our development passed we are now permitted to enter upon that new era when America participates in abolishing tyranny and injustice, ever hateful to God, and to carry to the oppressed nations of the world these principles of liberty through which our own chief blessings have come.

This is the supreme service that one nation can render to another—to safeguard the liberties of its people. In this momentous time the burden of our Thanksgiving this year it seems should be that we are to be chief among the ministers in working out the Divine purpose to have all men—Greek and Barbarian—free.

"Just a minute," said Ann, and then in a lower voice, as she handed the phone to Bab: "It's for you. I think it's Doug." Bab grasped the phone quickly. After a few minutes' conversation she put down the receiver, and placing her arm around her friend, started whispering her about the room. "Doug, let me rest a minute," exclaimed Ann. "And if you don't mind, just what is the matter anyway?" She drew Bab to the sofa.

"Well, it's just this way," explained Bab. "Doug is coming up tonight, and he's going to bring a nice young man. 'Really,' said Ann, adding in a disinterested voice, 'who?'"

"His name is Ray Stanley, and he was a friend of Doug's in college. He's leaving with Doug for camp in a few days, and Doug says that they want to make the most of the short time they have left."

"But where do I come in?" asked Ann, for she was Bab's guest. "Where?" repeated Bab. "Why, you big silly! With Ray, of course." But Ann thought otherwise.

"Well, I guess I don't come in with any old Ray or anyone else for that matter. You might have asked my permission before trying to put me off on any old 'he-person,' so there!" And Ann, with her head high in the air, ran out of the room.

"Well, of all the—!" started Bab, then stopped. What was the matter with Ann, anyway? She absolutely refused to meet these "he-persons," as she persisted in calling the opposite sex, and all of Bab's efforts to that end had been failures. Ann was fond of Doug, in a way—because he was engaged to Bab—but any other male was much more at home away from her. Suddenly Bab jumped up, as if inspired, and going over to the phone again called Doug's number. They chatted for a few moments, with a few eagerly suppressed "Yes's," "Oh, de's," and "That will be fine's" on Bab's part. Then she went out to join her friend, who was seated in the hammock.

She had just gotten comfortably seated when the phone rang again. "Oh, heavens!" exclaimed Bab; "there's that old phone again. I do wish people would let me stay quiet for a few minutes once in a while."

"I'll answer it, Bab," said Ann, obligingly. "It's probably one of the Bond girls to remind us that we are to play tennis with them tomorrow." And she went into the house. A few minutes later she came out flushed and angry.

Acid-Stomach Makes Life Miserable For Millions

Dentists tell us that acid mouth causes the eating away of enamel on the teeth, a substance much harder than bone. "Keep the mouth free from acid," they say, "and there will be little or no danger of decayed teeth."

Think of this—you can at once see what an excess amount of acid in the stomach—acid-stomach—means in the way of undermining one's health and strength!

Many people make the awful mistake of thinking that acid-stomach—superacidity as the doctors call it—merely causes an occasional attack of indigestion, bloating, heartburn, belching, sour, gassy stomach, and similar troubles that can quickly be remedied—and leave no serious after effects. As a matter of fact superacidity is responsible for a long train of serious ailments. It sometimes creates conditions which baffle the best medical skill. It is a well established fact that most cases of chronic stomach trouble, anemia, stomatitis, gastritis, rheumatism, gout, lumbago, intestinal ulcer, many cases of cancer of the stomach, valvular heart trouble and heart failure find their start in acid-stomach.

The excess acid must be removed. The stomach must be kept pure, sweet and strong, free to digest food properly. That is the only sure way to avoid the evil consequence of acid stomach and to enjoy vigorous, robust health.

A wonderful preparation now makes it possible to quickly remove acid-stomach. It is called EATONIC—a pleasant tasting compound that you eat like candy.

EATONIC literally wipes out the harmful excess acid and drives the bile out of the system. You can fairly feel it work. It is absolutely harmless and no matter how weak or delicate the stomach may be, EATONIC will not cause distress.

The immediate effects of EATONIC are nothing short of marvelous. Almost instantly it relieves that miserable, puffed up feeling after eating, sour, gassy stomach, heartburn, stops food repeating, etc. Makes the stomach feel sweet, cool and comfortable. Enables you to eat what you like and digest your food in comfort. Aids digestion and helps the digestive organs to get full strength out of every mouthful of food you eat. And that is what you must have in order to be well and strong—full strength from your food.

So we say—don't let an acid-stomach hold you back and wreck your health. Don't drag out your days feeling all in, down and out, weak and ailing, lacking in physical power and energy; listless, nervous, irritable and taking only a half-hearted interest in your work. Keep the vital spark flashing. Let every organ, muscle and nerve of your body function in perfect harmony with a strong, healthy stomach. Eat the things you like but make every mouthful count. Then you'll feel fine—be fit mentally alert—have pep and punch—the power and will to do things. That's the kind of health that makes life worth living!

Take EATONIC. Then see how much better you feel—immediately! You need this help. And you can get it easily. Your druggist has EATONIC. Get a big box today. It is guaranteed to please you in every way. You have faith in your druggist and you can trust him to make this guarantee good. If EATONIC doesn't please you just take it back and the druggist will refund your money. That is our guarantee.

Within the short space of a year tens of thousands of people all over the United States have used EATONIC. Everywhere they testify to its marvellous power to bring on quick relief.

If you are sick and ailing and have tried pills and medicines in vain, don't give up hope of getting well until you have gone directly to the seat of the trouble—the acid-stomach. Don't let another day go by. Get EATONIC at once. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC, write to us and we will send you a big size box. You can send us the 50c after you receive it. Address H. L. Kramer, President, Eatonie Remedy Company, Cor. Wabash Ave. and 11th St., Chicago, Ill.

WINTER COURSE IN AGRICULTURE OPENS AT STATE COLLEGE JAN. 1

Instruction in Tractor Handling One of the New Features of the Session Which Closes March 1.

The winter course in agriculture given by the Pennsylvania State college opens January 2 and closes March 1. On account of conditions the course has been shortened from a period of twelve weeks to only eight weeks. During this time very thorough and practical instruction is given in all phases of agriculture.

This year especially the course should attract a large number of students, largely because of the greater demand that is made upon producers and because of the shortage of trained men in agricultural work. The course comes at the time when it is most convenient for farmers to leave their work. One attending this course not only receives the instruction given by the men employed by our own school, but during farmers' week has the opportunity of hearing men who are national figures in agriculture. The associations formed also add a great deal toward making the course worth while. Special training will be given in particular lines of work in order to train men and women along these lines.

A course dealing with cow testing, association work will be given. Furthermore special courses will be given in tractor handling and the courses in dairy manufacture will be modified to meet our present needs. Because of the smaller numbers in the regular classes this winter more time and attention will be given to those taking the short course work.

This course should be given careful consideration by all those who might be able to attend. More detailed information relative to expenses, etc., will be gladly given at the Fayette County Farm Bureau office, where bulletins dealing with the course can be secured.

PROVEN SWAMP-ROOT AIDS WEAK KIDNEYS

The symptoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to more dangerous kidney troubles.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which, so many people say, "soon heals and strengthens the kidneys," is a splendid kidney liver and bladder medicine, and being an herbal compound has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.

A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Connelville Daily Courier—Adv.

Chintz Covers for Books.

During the summer months, when books are liable to be read out of doors in arbor or hammock, and perhaps left there, it is well to make gay little chintz covers to slip on them. These can be hastily caught together with feather-stitching in a contrasting shade and will add to the appearance of the book as well as serve to protect it.

FEE FROM AUTO LICENSE

May Be Used to Pay Interest and Reduce the Bonds; Governor Sproul to See That Fund is Properly and Economically Applied to Road Building.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26.—With indications that the formal declaration of peace will come before or shortly after the next session of the legislature, it is extremely probable that the 1919 session will pass and Governor Sproul sign a bill making possible the borrowing of $50,000,000 with which Pennsylvania can go into the road-building business on a large scale. Senator Sproul prior to the recent election, when Pennsylvania voters approved the bond issue proposition by what seems to be over 200,000 majority, declared that no bonds would be issued until after the war. Legislative enactment, therefore, will probably provide that bonds be not issued until after the peace terms have finally been signed by the German powers and the Allies.

Automobile license fees now total about $4,000,000 per annum and are increasing rapidly. The suggestion has been made that from these huge fees a sinking fund be created from which to pay off the road loan, as well as pay the interest. But this $4,000,000 is now used by the State Highway Department for maintenance purposes, and if it were taken for repayment purposes the legislature might have to appropriate further funds for maintenance or use part of the borrowed money for that purpose.

The appropriation made by the 1917 legislature for road construction was $10,375,470.40. To this must be added approximately $7,000,000 for the two years from automobile license fees. The general appropriations bill carried an item of $1,070,000 for overhead expenses of the department. The total for actual road work of all kinds was nearly $17,500,000.

It is not proposed to borrow the $50,000,000 at one time inasmuch as it would be physically impossible for the State Highway Department to do construction to that extent in a short time. The suggestion has been made that bonds be issued for work at all times and that these bonds be issued each fall to pay for the work finished during the preceding construction period.

MEETS HOME BOYS

"Had Good Luck," Says Robert Addis
Speaking of the Occurrence.

Writing to Miss Anna Mulac of underbitch Robert Addis Field Artillery says:

I had pretty good luck yesterday in meeting boys from our home town. I saw W. A. Reed, Edward Reed, Bill Hayes, Will Jacobs and C. W. Derber. All the boys are feeling top top and taking life as it comes. I met "Jockey" White. He certainly was a sight. He was greased from head to foot. He works in the kitchen helping to make the stum which the boys occasionally get for a meal.

"We are having pretty cold weather. Sleeping in our pup tents we feel pretty stiff in the morning but when we get to work we warm up and feel as good as ever. Army life is all right if you don't weaken. I am now called for guard duty and must close."

Pullman Rate Cut

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Elimination of the one-half cent a mile extra railroad fare for Pullman transportation, effective December 1, has been decided on by Director General McAdoo.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache stuffy from a cold foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, ach can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone whether ailing sick or well should each morning before breakfast drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of Epsom's phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, ach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders, and sickly complexions are led to get a quarter pound of Epsom's phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Dr.

HEALTH TALK

SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIP
By DR. LEE H. SMITH

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies we can escape the disease. Remember these three Cs—a clean mouth, a clean skin and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple leaves of aloes, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce and, as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salutarin has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic called "Frontic" Tablets or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.—Adv.

SHAME FOR FOLKS

AT HOME TO FAIL TO WRITE TO BOYS

Fears, Sometimes Trickle Down the Cheeks When Mail Does Not Come,
Ralph Sliger Says.

Writing to Mrs. K. M. Snyder, president of the Courier company, Ralph F. Sliger, a former linotype operator at this plant, severely takes to task relatives of the boys in France who neglect writing to them. Ralph says: "My intentions have been to write to you long before this but we have been so busy. You no doubt have seen in the paper accounts of the big drive we made against the Germans. It is said to have been one of the hardest fought battles of the war. Our regiment was congratulated on account of its good work."

The weather is pretty cold over here now and it rains most of the time but we have the Germans on the run always. We don't give him time to fix up his winter quarters. I wish I could tell you about some of the low down tricks the Germans try to pull off.

We are out of the lines now for a rest of two or three weeks and I might say I am surely taking advantage of the opportunity to rest. I received some Couriers the other day and surely was glad to get them. I read even the advertisements. It surely takes a fellow back home to read a home paper.

"I am well and feeling fine. I hope the Courier force are as well. I send my best to all of them. Some of them still owe me a letter. Tell them I am still waiting to hear from them."

You should see the fellows when the mail comes in. Some of them get lots of letters. Some stand about with an eager look on their faces and when the mail is all given out and they don't get any a peculiar expression appears. I said to one of them "What's the matter Bill?" Oh nothing he replied and started to whistle and walk away but I saw a tear start down his cheek. Mrs. Snyder I think it is a shame that some people have boys over here and won't write to them. Perhaps some of the folks back home cannot write but I am sure they can get somebody to write for them.

Rehabilitation of Soldiers Is Work Immediately Ahead

The great battle for the salvation of the world from German Kultur is not "over and done with" for a good many thousands of the men who have been fighting it, and consequently it is not "over and done with" for the Americans who have been backing them at home.

These thousands are coming back from the battle fields wounded and disabled. Their sacrifices will be counted throughout their lives. But the sacrifice will be lessened as much as possible by the greatest surgical ability of the world and by the money of the country.

A considerable part of the last Liberty Loan funds will be used in such rehabilitation work as the world never dreamed of in past years. It will include surgery, artificial limbs, medical services and finally vocational training which will enable the soldier to take up his life again and make it of value to himself and so to the country.

The picture above shows one returned soldier for whom a mechanical arm application makes it possible to work in a chemical laboratory.

Liberty Loan Honor Counties Announced

Cleveland, Dec. 5.—The six proudest counties in the Fourth Federal District are those which first reached the Liberty Loan quota. Along with the pride of being first, they won the honor each of naming a U. S. ship. The counties are Ashland, Vinton, Franklin and Henry in Ohio; Hancock in West Virginia and McCreary in Kentucky. Mrs. Frank K. Martin has been chosen sponsor for its ship by Franklin county. Miss Dorothy Weir by Hancock county, and Miss Myrtle Campbell by McCreary county. The others have not been named.

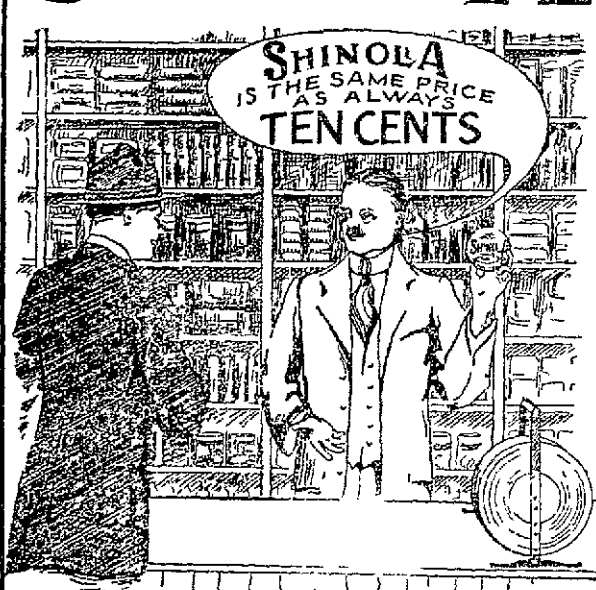

Peace, As War, Must Be Financed

We are going to have to finance peace for a while just as we have to finance war.

So says Secretary McAdoo in announcing the certainty of another Liberty Loan. "There are over 2,000,000 United States soldiers abroad," he pointed out. "If we transport these men back to the United States at the rate of 300,000 a month it will be over half a year before they are all returned. Our army therefore must be maintained, clothed and clothed for many months after peace is an actuality."

WEAKNESS REMAINS LONG AFTER Influenza

Reports Show That Strength,
Energy and Ambition
Return Very Slowly to Grippe Patients.

After an attack of influenza doctors advise that patients be assisted in its building up process by the use of a good tonic—one that will not only put strength and endurance into the body but will also help to build up and strengthen the run-down cells of the brain.

One of the most highly recommended remedies to put energy into both body and brain is Bioferen—your physician knows the formula—it is printed below. There's iron in Bioferen—he kind of iron that makes red blood corpuscles and gives vigor. There is lecithin also, probably the best brain invigorator known to science. Then there is good old reliable gentian that brings back your lagging appetite.

There are other ingredients that help to promote good health as you can see by reading this formula, not forgetting kola that great agent that puts the power of endurance into weak people.

Taken altogether Bioferen is a splendid active tonic that will greatly help any weak run-down person to regain normal strength, energy, ambition and endurance.

Bioferen is sold by all reliable druggists and is inexpensive. For weakness after influenza patients are advised to take two tablets after each meal and one at bed time—even a day until health, strength and vigor are fully restored.

It will not fail to help you and if for any reason you are dissatisfied with results your druggist is authorized to return your money upon request—without any red tape of any kind.

Note to physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bioferen. It is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin, Calcium Glycero phosphate, Iron, Pepsin, Manganese, Peptonate, Elix Nux Vomica, Powdered Gentian, Phosphoric acid, Oleanthol, Capsicum, Kola.
